

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Unwanted phone calls are annoying and time consuming. Please don't allow our privacy to be invaded in a time when our homes are the one place we can relax and enjoy.